Note 1:

As per Rule 16(5)(a) of the BPA Constitution the above rates apply to a terminal operator who wishes to join the Association. These rates are half of what a port or conservatory authority would be required to pay.

Note 2:

The BPA has a six months' notice period for resignations. See below Article 17 of the BPA Constitution:

17. Any member of the Association wishing to retire as a member shall give to the Secretary of the Association at least six months' previous notice in writing of the date upon which the member intends so to retire and such retirement shall be effective as from that date but a member of the Association so retiring shall not be entitled to reclaim any part of the moneys which that member may at any time have paid and, notwithstanding any such retirement or notice thereof, that member shall be and remain bound to discharge all financial obligations imposed and incumbent upon it as a member of the Association until the date upon which that member's retirement takes effect or until the last day of the current Association accounting period in which the notice is given, whichever is the later.
