Please carefully note the following constitutional rules, and if acceptable, you must sign and date below to confirm your agreement:

Rule 4 (3) of the BPA Constitution: Membership Election

- 4. (3) The Council may, if they think fit, elect as an associate member of the Association
- (a) any corporate body owning or controlling any port, or any conservancy authority, not eligible for membership of the Association under paragraph (1) above; or
 - (b) any other corporate body which, or individual who, in the opinion of the Council has expertise in matters relating to the management or operation of a port or a conservancy or a port or conservancy related undertaking

Rule 17 of the BPA Constitution: Terms of Resignation

- 17. Any member of the Association wishing to retire as a member shall give to the Secretary of the Association at least six months' previous notice in writing of the date upon which the member intends so to retire and such retirement shall be effective as from that date but a member of the Association so retiring shall not be entitled to reclaim any part of the moneys which that member may at any time have paid and, notwithstanding any such retirement or notice thereof, that member shall be and remain bound to discharge all financial obligations imposed and incumbent upon it as a member of the Association until the date upon which that member's retirement takes effect or until the last day of the current Association accounting period in which the notice is given, whichever is the later.

I confirm that I have read and understood the above terms of membership and agree to abide by them:
