

Coastal Shipping and British Ports Seminar

Thursday 29 November 2018

First Floor, 30 Park Street, London, SE1 9EQ

Chair: Richard Ballantyne, Chief Executive, British Ports Association

09:30 Refreshments

10:00 Welcome and introductions
Richard Ballantyne, Chief Executive, British Ports Association

SESSION ONE

10:05 Coastal shipping – where we are now

Your typical coastal port – Shoreham
Rodney Lunn, Chief Executive, Shoreham Port

A market analysis of the current trends in UK coastal shipping
Stephen Taylor, Director, Port Centric Logistics Partners Ltd

South West coastal ports overview and a new liner service opportunity
Clive Kessell, Coastal Wise Shipping and Logistics

Short sea shipping: your ports, our call
Lodewijk Wisse, Tax & Legal, Royal Association of Netherlands Shipowners

Questions & answers

11:15 Coffee break

SESSION TWO

11:30 Grants and the regulatory environment

A DfT overview of Mode Shift Freight Grants and exploring the market opportunities for Coastal Shipping and Inland Waterways
Catharine Parton, Freight Grants Team & Liam Cox, Policy Adviser, Department for Transport

Activities of Montrose Port Authority, plus coastal shipping and the Modal Shift Grant recently secured by the port
Nik Scott-Gray, Chief Executive, Montrose Port

Shipping perspective on environmental air emission strategies
David Balston, Director of Policy, UK Chamber of Shipping

Questions & Answers

12:30 Lunch

SESSION THREE

13:15 Business development and opportunities

Joining the dots: improving the connections between coastal shipping and the UK Supply Chain

Alex Veitch, Head of Global Policy, Freight Transport Association

What ports can do to maintain current users, and promote to potential new ones

Julius Deane, Wheat Director, Carr's Flour Mills Ltd

Potential to use North Sea as an alternative network to road and rail, can save time, money and promote environmental sustainability

Nolan Gray, Business Development Director, Port of Tyne

Panel discussion

- Cameron Bowie, Managing Director, Hapag-Lloyd UK
- Kevin Cox, Chartering Manager, Wijnne-Barends
- Julius Deane, Wheat Director, Carr's Flour Mills Ltd
- Nolan Gray, Business Development Director, Port of Tyne
- Alex Veitch, Head of Global Policy, Freight Transport Association

14:15 Coffee break

SESSION FOUR

14:30 Future developments

An exploration of recent UK coastal shipping activity and potential drivers of future traffic

Peter Holland, Managing Director, Arkevista Ltd

Panel discussion

- Stephen Anderson, Chair, Freight by Water & Associate, Peter Brett Associates LLP
- Peter Holland, Managing Director, Arkevista Ltd
- James Leeson, Head of Commercial – UK Ports, DP World

15:30 Summary and close

Richard Ballantyne, Chief Executive, British Ports Association